HOW TO APPLY

All interested parties must apply through the City of Tallahassee's online application system at <https://www.talgov.com/employment/cda-psco>. Only online applications will be accepted. Please ensure you complete all sections of the online application, including education and work history, even if you submit a resume. In addition to completing and submitting the online application, all applicants must complete and submit the PSCO Personal Information Questionnaire which should be uploaded as an attachment via the City of Tallahassee online application system. Once received, applicants will be sent a link to the online portal for submission of required documents and Personal History Statement information, needed for the background review. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply.

For the full job description, please visit: PSCO Job Description

If you have a disability requiring accommodations, please call 850-891-8214 Monday through Friday, between 8 AM and 5 PM, or TDD 711.

APPLICATION PROCESSING TIME

Depending upon the number of applications being processed and the availability to schedule and complete the multi-step hiring process, the entire selection process could take up to two months to complete. The selection process can be delayed due to inconsistent communication from the applicant. The number of applicants hired, and the frequency of training is based on the number of applications received and number of vacancies.

All applicants not selected for a position are informed in writing. Unsuccessful candidates may reapply after a period of one year, unless disqualified from the selection process.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR EMPLOYMENT

- Minimum typing speed of 28 words per minute (WPM)

- Poor work history, including but not limited to attendance issues, performance issues, disciplinary actions, terminations, etc.
- Any applicant who has been disqualified based on the findings of a background investigation may not reapply for 12 months from the date of notification of disqualification

SELECTION PROCESS

Application Review

New applications and questionnaires are reviewed to ensure that all minimum requirements are met. If all required information is not included the applicant will be contacted for the needed information. Once the application meets the minimum requirements, the applicant is moved to the next step in the selection process.

Preliminary Criminal History Check

The applicant's criminal history, if any, is reviewed.

CritiCall

The CritiCall assessment tests the applicant's ability to follow directions provided in writing and verbally, computer skills, multi-tasking ability, typing skills, and the ability to make decisions based on structured rules; however, no prior dispatching experience is necessary to successfully pass the test. To move forward in the selection process, the applicant must earn a minimum score of 80% and type 28 WPM. The applicant will be notified of their scores and eligibility to move to the next step.

Observation

The applicant is required to complete a two-hour observation. During the observation the applicant will be afforded the opportunity to experience non-emergency and emergency phone calls, and law radio and/or fire radio. A description of the teletype responsibilities will be provided. The applicant is required to submit an After-Action Report (AAR) that should include the date, times, workstations, names of the communication operators the applicant was paired with during the observation and the applicant's impressions regarding the activities observed.

Oral Board Interview

The applicant is contacted to schedule an oral board interview. All applicants are asked the same set of questions during the interview. A summary sheet of each applicant's interview will be completed and the board's consensus will determine whether the applicant moves forward.

Conditional Offer

Upon favorable determination of the Oral Board interview, the applicant will receive a Conditional Offer of Employment which must be signed, witnessed, and returned to the Administrative Services Office. The conditional offer is contingent upon the successful completion of specific screening components which include a polygraph or truth verification examination, psychological evaluation, vision and hearing medical exam, background investigation, Director's review, and drug screening.

Polygraph or Truth Verification Examination

The polygraph or truth verification examination is an interview concerning the applicant's lifestyle, job history, and personal background. A trained examiner conducts the polygraph or truth verification examination. The examination will be scheduled based on the availability of the examiner. The examination results will be given to the Director or designee for review. The results of the polygraph examination or other instruments for the detection of deception will not be used as the single determinant of employment status.

Psychological Evaluation

The psychological evaluation is scheduled with a licensed psychologist, Monday through Friday 8:00am-5:00pm, based on the doctor's availability. The psychologist report will be given to the Director or designee for review.

Medical Examination and Drug Screening

All applicants who receive a conditional offer of employment must undergo a basic medical examination that includes testing for vision and hearing to determine if the applicant is able to perform the essential functions of the position. The applicant will also be required to complete a five-panel drug screening. As an equal opportunity employer, the CDA is committed to the laws and regulations governing employment, including the Americans with Disabilities Act. Applicants will not be eliminated based on the medical examination unless they cannot perform the essential functions of the job with, or without, a reasonable accommodation.

Background Investigation

The background investigation will include the following:

- Review of the application and qualifying credentials
- Review of criminal and driving history
- Department of Health license check for prior Public Safety Telecommunication Certification (PSTC), if applicable
- Search of Law Enforcement agency report databases
- Cyber vetting
- Professional and personal reference checks
- Review of applicant's employee records, if applicable
- Follow up with applicant, if necessary

Director Review

The Director or designee will review the application packet in its entirety which includes the interview summary sheets, polygraph or truth verification examination results, background investigation report, and psychological evaluation results. A final interview by the Director may be requested to address any questions or concerns.

Formal Offer

A formal employment offer will be made to the selected applicant(s) upon successful completion of all required steps in the selection process. The applicant will be notified via email and/or phone.

Fingerprints

The applicant is required to be fingerprinted by the end of the first week of employment.

If the applicant fails to meet the minimum standards required, provides false and/or misleading information, the applicant will be removed from the hiring process.
